PRESIDENTS AND VICE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE MORE

Everyone wants more. Especially more of everything that is fun. And that's what the goal of the Rogue Valley Classic Cruisers has been for the last four plus decades. As an example, when it comes to more fun, go no further than checking out the current RVCC event schedule. It's loaded with more socials, more cruises and more car shows throughout the year than ever before. Yes, there is more of everything, and that is what makes the RVCC so much fun for members and is the reason why there are so many new enthusiasts who have decided to join the club.

Rain or shine, regardless of the season, every month there are numerous events scheduled that are sure to pique the interest of the members. Even something as basic as the regularly scheduled monthly club meetings provides everyone with a great reason to get out and enjoy the camaraderie of like-minded enthusiasts. At each meeting, attendees are warmly greeted when they arrive and those that show up early have a chance to visit with friends and other members. Once the meeting begins, the latest topics and upcoming events are discussed, often followed by guest speakers who share valuable information on a wide range of interesting automotive themed topics. The best complement we ever had was from a member of another car club who joined us at a meeting as a guest. His comment was that our meetings are more like a party than a meeting!

The premier RVCC event each year is the Annual Fabulous 50's Charity Car Show, which celebrates its 31st anniversary in 2026. Raising the bar on bigger, better and more fun than ever is the goal, and next year there will be not one, not two, but three buildings full of vehicles of all kinds on display. And this is in addition to everything else that makes this three-day event so much fun for everyone.

We could go on and on, but one thing for sure is clear. The Rogue Valley Classic Cruisers is focused on family and friends who want to have fun together while sharing a common interest in cool vehicles of all kinds. What could be better than that?
