PRESIDENTS AND VICE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

IT'S ALL ABOUT CHARITY

The Fabulous 50's Charity Car Show has the word "charity" in its name for good reason. Every year for the past 30 years, the money raised by the Show after the expenses have been paid is donated to local charities that the RVCC members chose.

Think about that for a moment. A dedicated group of RVCC members volunteer each year to put on the Show without compensation of any kind for the benefit of local non-profit organizations who assist people in need. The production of the Fabulous 50's Charity Car Show is headed up by the Show Chairman who leads a group volunteers called Team Leaders. Each of the Team Leaders are responsible for ensuring that the numerous tasks required to produce a successful show are handled in an orderly fashion. Once a month through most of the year, there are Team Leader Meetings where the Show Chairman and Team Leaders meet to present progress reports. At the meetings each Team Leader reports on their progress toward achieving the goals they are responsible for. The monthly meetings set an orderly pace for progress and point out any potential problem areas that need to be addressed in a timely fashion. In addition, each Team Leader heads up a group of RVCC volunteers who help on the show day(s), as all of the tasks require staffing, such as on-site registration, parking, and the sales of event apparel, just to name a few.

Needless to say, from year to year, there may be a rotation of Team Leaders and volunteers due to a variety of reasons. In addition, each year the Show grows in size and the number of individual events increases. Because of this, it is important that RVCC members consider volunteering. Since there are a wide range of positions that need to be filled each year, a volunteer can generally choose a job that they would enjoy doing at the Show.

In short, putting on the Fabulous 50's Charity Car Show is a major undertaking that not only requires the support of RVCC club members, but their assistance. On a personal note, each of the members who volunteer share in the satisfaction in putting on a show like this, and the pride in a job not merely done, but done well. We encourage each of you to consider helping out for the 2026 Fabulous 50's Charity Car Show and make it the best one yet.

It's that time of year again! Our annual Toys for Tots donation cruise and lunch at Jimmy's Classic Drive-In afterwards. We are scheduled for Saturday, November 29th. If it is not raining, we will drive our classic cars for this event. (if it is raining, we can drive our regular cars) We'll meet at Udder's parking lot at 11:00 AM and drive over to Bi-Mart on 6th St. near Redwood Hwy. Each car would bring an unwrapped toy or toys to donate to the Toys for Tots event. This is a very important event, close to my heart, as no child should go without gifts at Christmas. If you cannot make the November 29th event, you are welcome to bring your unwrapped toy to the November 9th general meeting and I will be happy to collect it to bring to the event. Further details as far as time and lunch location will be shared at the November general meeting. Thank you!! Donna Spencer
